FOR THE LOVE OF SAM! HAPPY BIRTHDAY, SAM: Sam's Day, an annual fundraiser, attracted more than 700 visitors last week to the Brant Hills Community Centre. Named in honour of local resident Sam Lack, the event was established as a birthday and remission anniversary celebration for Andrea and Jay Lack's youngest son, who has battled neuroblastoma, a rare childhood cancer. Sam turned four on June 4. The goal this year was to raise more than $30,000 for The James Fund, a pediatric cancer research fund within the SickKids Foundation in Toronto, to further the work of the Sam Lack Drug Discovery Research Project. More than $42,000 was raised, eclipsing last year's mark of $27,000. Here, Kate Martin agreed to have her head shaved during Sam's Day to raise funds.
